CONTRACTOR GENERAL SUBMITS 2006 ANNUAL REPORT TO PARLIAMENT

Kingston, June 11, 2007 – The Contractor General’s Annual Report for calendar year 2006 has been submitted to Parliament.

One hundred and ten (110) copies of the Report were formally submitted today by Contractor General, Greg Christie, to the Speaker of the House of Representatives and the President of the Senate.

Section 28 (3) of the Contractor General Act requires that the Report must now be tabled in both Houses of Parliament “as soon as possible”.

Once the Report is so tabled, the Office of the Contractor General (OC-G), acting in the public interest, will publish its full contents on the OC-G’s website at www.ocg.gov.jm. Hard copies of the Report will also be conveyed, by the OC-G, to the Media and other stakeholders.

The Report is mandated by law to give Parliament and, by extension, the People of Jamaica, a formal account of the execution of the Contractor General’s functions throughout the calendar year.
