MEDIA RELEASE

Reports of Parliamentarians

Kingston; January 24, 2019 - A letter from the National Integrity Commission (NIA) received on January 17, 2019 and released to the media on the same day indicated that the last report tabled in Parliament, under the Parliament (Integrity of Members) Act, is the one for calendar year 2013. Parliamentarians were required to file reports of their income, assets and liabilities with the then existing Integrity Commission (the legacy Commission) which has been subsumed under the new Integrity Commission.

We advise that the Annual Reports for the years 2014 to 2016 have been completed and were duly submitted to the Office of the Prime Minister, as was the requirement under the legislation.

We further advise that preparation of the Annual Report for 2017 is currently in progress and is expected to be completed and submitted directly to Parliament before the end of the 2018/2019 financial year.

The Commission will commence the preparation of the Annual Report for 2018 upon the expiration of the statutory declaration timeline of March 2019.

Justice Karl Harrison CD (Retired)
